Overview: At Center for the Pacific Asian Family (CPAF), we help Asian and Pacific Islander (API) survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault and their families. Our services are free, confidential, and available in more than 30 Asian and Pacific Islander languages. The domestic violence hotline provides telephone crisis intervention for battered women and performs intake screening for the agency's shelter. The hotline also provides information, counseling, and support. Referrals are made for medical and legal services and other related services. The program also provides crime victim support in obtaining TRO's for battered women
