Parents/Guardians, join our partner, Inclusion Matters by Shane's Inspiration, for an interactive webinar that explores:

- Inclusive practices that build a culture of belonging
- Techniques to bridge students with and without disabilities socially
- Successful structures to foster social inclusion
- A parent-driven conversation to identify barriers, needs, and resources to support inclusion

The webinar will offer parents/guardians an opportunity to explore simple steps and easy adaptations that build a sustainable inclusive practice in any school.

Webinar Dates:

Option 1: Tuesday, September 13th 9:00 am – 10:00 am

Option 2: Tuesday, September 13th 5:00 pm – 6:00 pm

Inclusion Matters by Shane's Inspiration has been serving LAUSD students and educators since 2002, facilitating social inclusion for more than 50,000 students in over 250 schools through their education program, Together, We Are Able. For over 10 years, they have partnered with the Division of Special Education by delivering workshops to educators, para-professionals, and parents on social inclusion. Their mission is to create inclusive playgrounds and educational programs that unite children of all abilities.
