

The purpose of the ELPAC Summative Assessment Domain Information Document is to facilitate making connections between classroom practices and the ELPAC Summative Assessment at all instructional levels. This document was adapted from ELPAC Domain Information Sheets from the California Department of Education (CDE) and contains the information from each of the 4 pages of the ELPAC Domain Information Sheets. The Domain Information Sheets provide a brief description of all ELPAC task types by domain (Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing). In these documents, information is specific to both the grade level and span for the ELPAC Summative Assessment.

LISTENING TASK TYPES (Multiple Choice)

Students show their abilities in listening in English. Administered in small groups of up to 10 students in grade 2.

Listen to a Short Exchange	Listen to a Story	Listen to an Oral Presentation
Students hear a two-turn exchange between two speakers and then answer a question about the exchange.	Students hear a story, which includes a conversation, and then answer three detailed questions about the conversation.	Students hear an oral presentation on an academic topic, then answer three to four questions about it.

SPEAKING TASK TYPES (Constructed Response)

Students show their abilities in speaking in English. Administered individually.

Talk about a Scene	Speech Functions	Support an Opinion	Retell a Narrative	Summarize an Academic Presentation
The student is presented with an illustration of a familiar scene. The test examiner first asks three who, what, when type questions about the scene. The test examiner then administers three items intended to generate longer responses.	The student states what they would say in a situation described by the test examiner. The student uses language to inform, persuade, make a request, etc., in an appropriate manner to a student or a teacher.	The student listens to a presentation about two activities, events, materials, or objects, and is asked to give an opinion about why one is better than the other. The student views a picture of the choices for context and support.	The student listens to a story that follows a series of pictures, and then the student uses the pictures to retell the story.	The student listens to an academic presentation while looking at a related picture(s). The student is prompted to summarize the main points of the presentation using the illustration(s) and key terms of the presentation, if provided.

READING TASK TYPES (Multiple Choice)

Students show their abilities in reading English. Administered in small groups of up to 10 students in grade 2.

Read and Choose a Word	Read and Choose a Sentence	Read a Short Informational Passage	Read a Literary Passage	Read an Informational Passage
The student reads three words and chooses the word that matches a picture.	The student reads three or four sentences and chooses the sentence that best describes a picture.	The student reads a short informational text and answers multiple-choice questions related to the text.	The student reads a literary passage and answers multiple-choice questions concerning comprehension, language use, and word choice.	The student reads an informational passage and answers multiple choice questions concerning comprehension, language use, and word choice.

WRITING TASK TYPES (Constructed Response)

Students show their abilities in writing in English. Administered in small groups of up to 10 students in grade 2.

Write a Story Together with Scaffolding	Write an Informational Text Together	Describe a Picture
The student collaborates with the Test Examiner to jointly compose a short literary text.	The student listens to a short informational passage and then collaborates with the test examiner to jointly compose a text about the passage.	The student looks at a picture and writes a brief description about what is happening.