

Are You Prepared To Apply For A Job Online?

Online Job Search Tips:

1. Use a working email account with a professional sounding name.
2. Create a thorough resume and know how to attach it to an email.
3. Write an effective letter of intent for the job you want.
4. Learn to research jobs and apply online.
5. Use a reliable phone line to schedule a face-to-face interview.
6. Practice interviewing so that you become more comfortable with the process.

Our Mission Statement

The District Office of Transition Services is committed to empowering all students with disabilities, beginning at age 14, with the skills necessary to achieve their full potential in adult living, through support and collaboration with families, schools and communities.

Call DOTS Today!

Students with disabilities who have completed or graduated from high school and/or their families should call DOTS for more information about job search assistance, local facilities offering vocational training, and other opportunities to further their education.

Follow Up Survey! Please Participate!

Someone from DOTS will be contacting you during your first two years after high school. We want to know how you are doing and can provide resources and information about how to further your education, obtain vocational training, and search for job openings in your area of interest!
