

MIDDLE SCHOOL MATH TEACHERS:

LOOKING FOR PERSONALIZED PD THAT FITS YOUR SCHEDULE?

APPLY TO RECEIVE A SUBSCRIPTION THAT BRINGS PROFESSIONAL LEARNING TO YOU

THE NEXT GEN TEACHING AND LEARNING NETWORK

Pepper is an online professional learning website that offers a range of content-specific and pedagogical topics.

See the attached flyer for more information and course offerings.

1 WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

- ◆ Participants must be current middle school mathematics teachers.
- ◆ Subscriptions for Pepper are valid for one year, and paid for by the Division of Instruction.
- ◆ Subscriptions provide unlimited access to all Pepper content.
- ◆ Continuing education credits are available for a small fee.
- ◆ Participation is voluntary. Pepper courses may be completed during the work day (e.g. during conference period and/or after school), or at any time outside of work that is convenient for the teacher.

2 HOW YOU CAN APPLY

Apply now!! Subscriptions are limited. Click the link below to complete the Google Form before April 27, 2017.

<http://bit.ly/PepperPD>

DEADLINE EXTENDED

3 WHAT YOU AGREE TO DO

Complete one or more Pepper courses during the subscription year.

Participate in web-based focus groups, either via video and/or online community chats.

One or two classroom observations and follow-up discussion showcasing the implementation of learning.

Allow usage data to be collected in connection with your subscription.

Questions: Contact the Division of Instruction

Erin Cuenca, Middle School Math Coordinator
erin.cuenca@lausd.net