This chart can be expanded or abridged to meet the scope of the incident that is being managed.

The Incident Command System

The first name in the box represents the primary responsible person; the second name denotes the backup.

Note: This organization Chart is based on ICS and adapted for LAUSD use. The Principal and School Safety Committee should use discretion in making further modifications to address specific needs of the school.