During this convening, you may be elected to represent your Local District in the District English Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC).

The DELAC is the central district parent advisory committee that develops comments regarding programs and resources organized for English Learners. As a member of DELAC, you meet parents of English Learners from across the school district and learn with central office administrators. Please join us if you wish to learn about English Learners from a regional and central office perspective.

For more information or questions, please contact the LD Northwest Parent and Community Engagement Unit at (818) 654-3600

For assistance with opening an email account and learning to use Zoom before this convening, contact the Los Angeles Unified hotline at 213-443-1300.
