TITLE: Removal of Obsolete, Surplus, and/or Damaged Textbooks, Library Books, and Instructional Materials

NUMBER: BUL-054698

ISSUER: Frances Gipson, Ph. D., Chief Academic Officer
Division of Instruction

Esther Sinofsky, Ph.D., Administrative Coordinator
Integrated Library and Textbook Support Services

DATE: August 23, 2018

PURPOSE: In accordance with the California Education Code, any money received by the District from the sale of obsolete materials shall be used to purchase instructional materials.

MAJOR CHANGES: This Bulletin replaces BUL-5770.1, Donation, Sale, and Recycling of Obsolete and/or Damaged Textbooks, Library Books and Instructional Materials, dated July 31, 2012, and provides updated District personnel and contact information.

BACKGROUND: To ensure Williams sufficiency, schools must retain the former instructional materials until receipt and distribution of the newly adopted instructional materials is completed. Once the newly-adopted textbooks and instructional materials have been implemented, all previous materials must be sent to the District Warehouse per the instructions below.

Inventory received from school sites will be removed from the school’s Destiny Textbook Manager inventory by ILTSS staff. Procurement will negotiate the sale of obsolete instructional materials, not the individual sites.

GUIDELINES: The following guidelines apply:

I. CRITERIA FOR DETERMINING OBSOLETE OR SURPLUS INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Integrated Library and Textbook Support Services (ILTSS) has developed the following criteria to determine if materials are obsolete or surplus:

A. Textbooks

- Materials are no longer relevant to the school’s instructional program, e.g, new State-content standards and frameworks, revised District courses of study, school re-configuration, or newly adopted instructional materials for Grades TK-12.
- Materials that perpetuate sexual or racial stereotypes and do not comply with the State’s legal compliance guidelines (See Attachment A).
B. Library Books

- Library books that no longer support curriculum.
- Library books that no longer support State content standards or frameworks.
- Evidence of little or no circulation.
- Multiple copies of individual titles which do not circulate.

II. CRITERIA FOR DETERMINING DAMAGED MATERIALS

ILTSS has developed the following criteria to determine if instructional materials are damaged beyond repair:

- Broken spine
- Torn cover
- Missing pages or components
- Graffiti
- Heavily soiled pages
- Insect or mold infestation

III. PROCEDURES FOR TRANSFERING OBSOLETE, SURPLUS, OR DAMAGED INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS TO THE DISTRICT WAREHOUSE

The principal or designee shall:

A. Textbooks

- Delete the damaged or obsolete materials’ barcodes from Destiny Textbook Manager as appropriate.
  - For textbooks that are being replaced by newly adopted materials, please see the Reference Guide that addresses the textbook.
- Surplus textbook items must be transferred to the LAUSD District Warehouse through Destiny Textbook Manager. Tutorial can be found on the ILTSS website www.iltss.org → Tutorials → Transferring Textbooks.
- Pack the books in appropriate boxes.
  - Boxes may be ordered from the LAUSD General Stores Distribution Catalog:
    - Boxes (25 per bundle) – material number 6402500060
    - Tape – material number 8323212110
  - Boxes must not exceed 18x18x16.
  - Boxes must be in a location easily accessible for pick up by Truck Operations.
• Mark the boxes as obsolete textbooks (see Attachment B for a label template to photocopy and tape to each box).
• Request pick-up of obsolete, surplus, and/or damaged instructional materials via a Remedy Ticket (https://lausd-myit.onbmc.com/).
• If boxes/pallets are water damaged or have signs of insects and/or pests, Truck Operations will not remove the pallets from the site.
• Send only specified library/textbooks to the warehouse. Do not send non-instructional materials to the warehouse, e.g. old cumulative files, clothing and, electronics.

C. Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity—E.C. 50501, 60040(b), and 60044(a)

1. Adverse reflection. Descriptions, depictions, labels, or rejoinders that tend to demean, stereotype, or patronize individuals because of their sexual orientation or gender identity must not appear.

2. Achievements. Whenever developments in history or current events, or achievements in art, science, or other fields, are presented, the contributions of persons of gay, lesbian, or bisexual orientation, or transgender persons, particularly prominent persons, should be included and discussed when it is historically accurate to do so.

3. Proportion of portrayals. Instructional materials containing references to, or illustrations of, people must portray accurately, to the extent possible, the roles and contributions of a fair proportion of diverse sexual orientations and gender identities.

4. Roles. The presentation of persons of gay, lesbian, or bisexual orientation, or transgender identity, in instructional materials should not be significantly different from the portrayal of people of other sexual orientations and gender identities.

5. Emotions. Materials should not convey the impression that persons of gay, lesbian, or bisexual orientation, or transgender identity, are any different from other people in their emotions or their ability to love and be loved.

6. Socioeconomic settings. Persons of gay, lesbian, or bisexual orientation, or transgender identity, should be depicted in the same range of socio-economic settings as are people of other sexual orientations and gender identities.

D. Older Persons and the Aging Process—State Board of Education Policy, July 12, 1979

1. Adverse reflection. Descriptions, depictions, labels, or rejoinders that tend to demean, stereotype, or patronize older persons are prohibited.

2. Proportion of portrayals. Instructional materials containing references to, or illustrations of, usual human activities must include older persons except as limited by accuracy or special purpose.

3. Roles. The presentation of older persons in instructional materials should not be significantly different from the portrayal of people of other age groups except as is necessary to identify them as older persons.

4. Aging process. When appropriate, the aging process should be pictured as a continuous process spanning an entire lifetime.

E. People with Disabilities—E.C. 50501, 60040(b), 60044(a)

1. Adverse reflection. Descriptions, depictions, labels, or rejoinders that tend to demean, stereotype, or patronize disabled persons are prohibited.

2. Proportion of portrayals. Instructional materials that depict a broad range of human activities must include some representations of people with disabilities except as limited by special purpose or the need for accuracy.

3. Roles. The presentation of people with disabilities in instructional materials should not be significantly different from the portrayal of nondisabled persons except as is necessary to identify them as people with disabilities.

4. Emotions. Materials should not convey the impression that people with disabilities are any different from other people in their emotions or their ability to love and be loved.

5. Achievements. When developments in history or current events or achievements in art, science, or any other field are presented, the contributions of people with disabilities must be included when it is appropriate and historically accurate to do so.

F. Entrepreneur and Labor—E.C. 60040(c), 60044(a)

1. Adverse reflection. References or labels that tend to demean, stereotype, or patronize any persons engaged in any particular occupation or vocation, whether essentially entrepreneur, management, or labor, are prohibited.

2. Roles. Accurate reference should be made to the role and contribution of the entrepreneur and labor in the total development of California and the United States.
G. Religion—E.C. 50501, 60044(a) and Subsection (b)

1. Adverse reflection. No religious belief or practice may be held up to ridicule and no religious group may be portrayed as inferior.
2. Indoctrination. Any explanation or description of a religious belief or practice should be presented in a manner that does not encourage or discourage belief or indoctrinate the student in any particular religious belief.
3. Diversity. When religion is discussed or depicted, portrayals of contemporary American society should reflect religious diversity.

H. Ecology and the Environment—E.C. 60041(a)

1. Ecology. The interdependence of people and their environment should be represented.
2. Environmental protection. People’s responsibilities for creating and protecting a healthy environment should be emphasized.
3. Resource use. Wise use of natural resources should be encouraged. Instructional materials should never depict, encourage, or condone waste of resources except as necessary to illustrate a point.

I. Dangerous Substances—E.C. 60041(b)

1. Discouragement of use. The use of tobacco, alcohol, narcotics, or restricted dangerous drugs, except as prescribed by a physician, must not be glamorized or encouraged by illustrations or text.
2. Hazards of use. When references to, or illustrations of, the use of substances are included in other than an incidental manner, such as a passing reference to a character taking cough medicine or a classic short story referring to “father’s pipe,” the hazards of such use should be depicted or pointed out.

J. Thrift, Fire Prevention, and Humane Treatment of Animals and People—E.C. 60042

1. Waste. Waste must not be encouraged or glamorized.
2. Fire hazards. Unsafe practices and situations that constitute fire hazards must not be depicted (except for clarifying a point), condoned, or encouraged.
3. Inhumane treatment. Physical abuse of adults or children or violence against, or other inhumane or depraved treatment of, animals or people must not be depicted (except for clarifying a point), condoned, or encouraged.
4. Thrift. The practice of thrift should be encouraged through illustrations or text or both.
5. Fire prevention. Methods of fire prevention and fire safety rules in general should be explained and the use of such methods and rules encouraged through illustrations or text or both.
6. Humane treatment. Humane treatment of people and animals should be encouraged through illustrations and text. However, inhumane treatment that occurred in history (such as historical references to slavery or the Holocaust) should not be omitted or glossed over but should be depicted when it is appropriate to do so.

K. Declaration of Independence and Constitution of the United States—E.C. 60043

The standards apply only to instructional materials for social science, history, or civics classes.

1. The Declaration of Independence should be presented.
2. The United States Constitution should be included.

1. Use of any such depictions. Instructional materials shall not contain illustrations of any identifiable commercial brand names, products, or corporate or company logos unless such illustrations are necessary to the educational purpose of the instructional material and that purpose cannot be achieved without using such illustrations, or unless such illustrations are incidental to a scene of a general nature (example: Times Square, New York City).

2. Prominent use of any one depiction. These exceptions aside, if a brand name, representation, or company logo is illustrated, prominence shall not be given to any one brand or company unless, in turn, such illustration is necessary to the educational purpose of the instructional material and that purpose cannot be achieved without using such illustration (example: a Coca Cola sign in a foreign country, demonstrating the social influence of American corporations abroad).

M. Nutrition and Physical Activity—State Board of Education Policy, May 8, 2013

1. Variety of opportunities. A variety of opportunities should be available for students to learn about good nutrition and exercise so that they attain optimal physical and mental development.

2. Reinforcement through illustrations and content. Instructional materials should appropriately reinforce through illustrations and content the benefits of consuming nutritious foods and exercising regularly. Illustrations of foods should emphasize the selection of a variety of nutritious foods that are low in fat, salt, and sugar and high in fiber. Depictions of foods that are of low nutritional value should be minimized.
