Does the team's plan clearly define what students will know, understand, and be able to do upon matriculation, and will the skills students gain prepare them to be college and/or career ready?	2	7	13	5

Comments:

- As a parent I will go to the meeting and will look to see if the applicant team is meeting my expectations.
- The answers to my questions were not clear.
- The questions that were posed were not clear to me.
- They have good vision for what is expected from the new school, we only have left for this applicant team to deliver what was promised.
- Was well prepared to answer.
- The plan has a lot of good things but how will it be implemented by the program creators. Aside from the United Way or PSC office will there be someone who will check the fulfillment of the plan because it can only be a good plan if it delivers what was promised.

 2. Designing Data Driven & Student Centered Instructional Programs	Does Not My Expectations	Partially Meets My Expectations	Meets My Expectations	Exceeds My Expectations
Does the plan reflect a thorough analysis of the needs of all student groups at this school?	0	10	17	2
Does the plan use best practices and research to design programs and learning support services improve student achievement?	1	9	15	3

Comments: What will students know and be able to do upon matriculation from your school?

- They could implement more help for kids with intermediate (yellow) academic status because now they focus on red and green but the majority is in the middle and the school would become better.
- The plan is very good, thank you for it.
- To me, the answers from the applicant teams were not clear.
- This requires supervision from third party entities or parties independent of the school system or LAUSD.

  3. Instructional Program	Does Not My Expectations	Partially Meets My Expectations	Meets My Expectations	Exceeds My Expectations
Does the Applicant Team have a plan to help students with special learning needs? English Learners? Economically-disadvantaged? Gifted Students? Students with disabilities?	1	9	16	3
Comments: - They should help the kids because the percentage is of 13% ibky. -They should focus and involve them to move forward successfully. - Not clear.
  4. School Culture	Does Not My Expectations	Partially Meets My Expectations	Meets My Expectations	Exceeds My Expectations
Does the plan ensure a learning environment that promotes safe, supportive, college-going culture?	0	9	17	5
The description of a day in the life of a student portrays a dynamic school in which students will receive a high quality education?	1	5	19	5
Do the activities described (such as art, music, athletics, clubs, field trips, etc.) support the mission and vision of the school?	1	5	17	6
Comment: - How can we know the schedule based on my working days because I worry not being on time for my child. -I hope that the projects that the plan offers are not cut because of the budget deficits. -I love the fact that they have a partnership with CSUN. -Everything in paper looks good for as long as the plan is fulfilled. It doesn't matter the type of plan because dealing with education everything is welcomed when there is interest for the children to learn.

 5. Parent Engagement and Involvement	Does Not My Expectations	Partially Meets My Expectations	Meets My Expectations	Exceeds My Expectations
Does the plan present an approach to engage parents in strengthening their role as partners at home and at school?	2	10	13	3
Comments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Let's work together so that we can achieve victory. - I would like to know more that that I could help with the children. - Will we have access to the teacher's faults/errors/lack of proficiency data? -As a mother I will focus both at home and at the school. -Parents should also be evaluated just as teachers and staff. -We do not want for something like at Miramontes to happen here. - Yes but there are not achieving this even with all that has been done up to the moment. -I would like more parent involvement, at least 30 hours per year. - I thnk that parent involvement is lacking in the current plan. Let's motivate the parents giving them something directly to them instead of the kids because there are a lot of parents who do not care about incentives for their kids like pizza parties or something similar.
 6. Staffing	Does Not My Expectations	Partially Meets My Expectations	Meets My Expectations	Exceeds My Expectations
Does the plan ensure the recruitment of effective teachers that will support the academic, social, and cultural needs of the students?	1	9	16	4
Comments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - We want the best for our kids. - They should further support the kids and have patience with them. - I am informed that on March 23 we have an informative session with Mrs. Cueto about finance and funding cuts and staff from different schools. What will happen with the plans for this new school #13, will they fulfill with the expectations that they demonstrated to us? -I hope that they fulfill it during the new scholastic year and hope they do not change the plan. - Who will supervise to make sure it is implemented adequately? - The applicant team did not really comment on what we were interested in hearing about our questions of strange behavior that some teachers could have and how to ensure parents that we will not have abusing teachers.
