Model Sentences for Day 1 (linguistic features not bolded)

Their classes at St. Francis didn’t start until after the harvest and she couldn’t wait to see them. When they were all together, they talked about one thing: their Quinceañeras, the presentation parties they would have when they turned fifteen. They still had two more years to wait, but so much to discuss—the beautiful white gowns they would wear, the big celebrations where they would be presented, and the sons of the richest families would dance with them. After their Quinceañeras, they would be old enough to be courted, marry, and become las patronas, the heads of their households, rising to the positions of their mothers before them.
