

Culturally Responsive Participation Protocols

Pick-a-Stick

To show what we know, only the student whose stick is picked shares his/her thoughts with the class. All of us are ready to share, and we use turn-taking.

Roll 'Em

To show what we know, only the student who is sitting in the rolled seat and table shares thoughts with the class. All of us are ready to share and use turn-taking.

Give a Shout Out

To show what we know, all of us answer aloud. Sometimes we have the same answers, and sometimes our answers are different. We shout out our answers no more than 3 times, if necessary.

Call and Response

To show we are ready for the next activity or directions, we provide the appropriate response to our teacher's call for our attention. Our hands are free, eyes on the teacher and our voices are off.

Raise a Righteous Hand

To volunteer for something, we raise our hands silently. Not all of us may be able to volunteer the requested information or have a question, so only some of us will raise our hands to share.

Whip Around

To show what we know, we each take a turn sharing our very quick thoughts. All of us are ready and share our ideas aloud, and we use turn-taking.

My Turn, Your Turn

We listen when it is someone else's turn. When it is passed off to us, we can ask questions or take our turn with a discussion protocol.

Moment of Silence

The room is completely silent because we are showing reciprocity to our classmates by providing them with the silence they need to concentrate.
