Part 3: Interpretive (comprehension and analysis of written and spoken texts)

| 5. Listening actively: Listening actively to spoken English in a range of social and academic contexts SL.1.1-3 | 5. Demonstrate active listening to read-alouds and oral presentations by asking and answering yes-no and wh. questions with oral sentence frames and occasional prompting and support. | 5. Demonstrate active listening to read-alouds and oral presentations by asking and answering detailed questions with minimal prompting and light support. |
| 6. Reading/viewing closely: Reading closely literary and informational texts and viewing multimedia to determine how meaning is conveyed explicitly and implicitly through language RL.1.1-7,9,10; RL.1.1-7, 9-10; SL.1.2-3; L.1.4, 6 | 6. Describe ideas, phenomena (e.g., plant life cycle), and text elements (e.g., characters) based on understanding of a select set of grade-level texts and viewing of multimedia with substantial support. | 6. Describe ideas, phenomena (e.g., erosion), and text elements (e.g., central message, character traits) using key details based on understanding of a variety of grade-level texts and viewing of multimedia with light support. |
| 7. Evaluating language choices: Evaluating how well writers and speakers use language to support ideas and opinions with details or reasons depending on modality, text type, purpose, audience, topic, and content area RL.1.3-4; RL.1, 6; 8; L1.4-6 | 7. Describe the language writers or speakers use to present an idea (e.g., the words and phrases used to describe a character) with prompting and substantial support. | 7. Describe the language writers or speakers use to present or support an idea (e.g., the adjectives used to describe people and places) with prompting and moderate support. |
| 8. Analyzing language choices: Analyzing how writers and speakers use vocabulary and other language resources for specific purposes (to explain, persuade, entertain, etc.) depending on modality, text type, purpose, audience, topic, and content area RL.1.4-5; RI.1; 4.1-4, 6 | 8. Distinguish how two different frequently used words (e.g., large versus small) produce a different effect on the audience. | 8. Distinguish how multiple different words with similar meaning (e.g., big, large, huge, enormous, gigantic) produce shades of meaning and a different effect on the audience. |

Part 4: Productive (creation of oral presentations and written texts)

| 9. Presenting: Expressing information and ideas in formal oral presentations on academic topics SL.1.4-6, L.1.1, 6 | 9. Plan and deliver very brief oral presentations (e.g., show and tell, describing a picture). | 9. Plan and deliver longer oral presentations on a variety of topics in a variety of content areas (e.g., retelling a story, describing a science experiment). |
| 10. Writing: Writing literary and informational texts to present, describe, and explain ideas and information, using appropriate technology W.1.1-3, 5-6; SL.1, 2, 6-2, 6 | 10. Write very short literary texts (e.g., story) and informational texts (e.g., a description of an insect) using familiar vocabulary collaboratively with an adult (e.g., joint construction of texts), with peers, and sometimes independently. | 10. Write longer literary texts (e.g., a story) and informational texts (e.g., an informative text on the life cycle of an insect) collaboratively with an adult (e.g., joint construction of texts), with peers, and independently. |
| 11. Supporting opinions: Supporting own opinions and evaluating others’ opinions in speaking and writing W.1.1; SL.1, 4, 6; L.1.1, 2-6 | 11. Offer opinions and provide good reasons (e.g., My favorite book is X because X) referring to the text or to relevant background knowledge. | 11. Offer opinions and provide good reasons for expanded textual evidence or relevant background knowledge (e.g., paraphrased examples from text or knowledge of content). |
| 12. Selecting language resources: Selecting and applying varied and precise vocabulary and language structures to effectively convey ideas W.1.5; SL.1, 4; 6; L.1-1, 5-6 | 12. a) Retell texts and recount experiences, using key words. | 12. a) Retell texts and recount experiences, using complete sentences and key words. |
| | b) Use a select number of general academic and domain-specific words to add detail (e.g., adding the word scrumptious to describe a favorite food, using the word thorax to refer to insect anatomy) while speaking and writing. | b) Use a growing number of general academic and domain-specific words in order to add detail, create an effect (e.g., using the word suddenly to signal a change), or create shades of meaning (e.g., prance versus walk), while speaking and writing. |

LAUSD - Adapted from the 2012 CA ELD Standards
A. Structuring Cohesive Texts

1. Understanding text structure and organization based on purpose, text type, and discipline:
   - RL.1.5; RI.1.5; W.1-1.3-5; SL.1-4
   - Apply an understanding of how text types are organized (e.g., how a story is organized by a sequence of events) to comprising texts and composing basic texts with substantial support (e.g., using drawings, through joint construction with a peer or teacher) to comprising texts and writing texts in shared language activities guided by the teacher, with peers, and sometimes independently.

2. Understanding cohesion and how language resources across a text contribute to the way a text unfolds and flows:
   - RL.1.5; RI.1.5; W.1-1.3-5; SL.1-4; L.1.1
   - Apply basic understanding of how ideas, events, or reasons are linked throughout a text using a growing number of connecting words or phrases (e.g., one day, after, then) to comprising texts and writing texts in shared language activities guided by the teacher, with peers, and sometimes independently.

B. Expanding & Enriching Ideas

3. Using verbs and verb phrases to create precision and clarity in different text types:
   - W.1.5; SL.1.6; L.1.1, 6
   - a) Use frequently used verbs (e.g., go, eat, run) and verb types (e.g., doing, saying, being/having, thinking/feeling) in shared language activities guided by the teacher and sometimes independently. (e.g., simple past for recounting an experience) in shared language activities guided by the teacher and sometimes independently.
   - b) Use simple verb tenses appropriate for the text type and discipline to convey time (e.g., simple past for recounting an experience) in shared language activities guided by the teacher and sometimes independently.

4. Using nouns and noun phrases to expand ideas and provide more detail:
   - W.1.5; SL.1.6; L.1.1, 6
   - Expand noun phrases in simple ways (e.g., adding a familiar adjective to describe a noun) in order to enrich the meaning of sentences and add details about ideas, people, things, etc., in shared language activities guided by the teacher and sometimes independently.

5. Modifying to add details to provide more information and create precision:
   - W.1.5; SL.1.6; L.1.1, 6
   - Expand sentences with frequently used prepositional phrases (such as in the house, on the boat) to provide details (e.g., time, manner, place, cause) about a familiar activity or process in shared language activities guided by the teacher and sometimes independently.

C. Connecting and Condensing Ideas

6. Connecting ideas within sentences by combining clauses:
   - W.1-1.3-5; SL.1.4-6; L.1.1, 6
   - Combine clauses in a few basic ways to make connections between and to join ideas (e.g., creating compound sentences using and, but, so) in shared language activities guided by the teacher and sometimes independently.

7. Condensing ideas within sentences using a variety of language resources:
   - W.1-1.3-5; SL.1.4-6; L.1.1, 6
   - Condense clauses in a few basic ways (e.g., changing: I like blue. I like red. I like purple. -> I like blue, red, and purple.) to create precise and detailed sentences in shared language activities guided by the teacher and sometimes independently.

8. Expanding sentences and add details about ideas, people, things, etc., in shared language activities guided by the teacher and sometimes independently.

9. Using nouns and noun phrases to expand ideas and provide more detail:
   - W.1.5; SL.1.6; L.1.1, 6
   - Expand noun phrases in a growing number of ways (e.g., adding a newly learned adjective to a noun) in order to enrich the meaning of sentences and add details about ideas, people, things, etc., in shared language activities guided by the teacher and with increasing independence.

D. Differences between native language and English should be highlighted (e.g., phonemes or letters that are the same in both languages).

E. Differences between native language and English may not exist in the student’s native language; native language syntax may be different from English syntax.

Part III: Using Foundational Literacy Skills (RF.K.1-1.4 as appropriate)

Foundational Literacy Skills: Literacy in an Alphabetizing Writing System

- Print concepts
- Phonological awareness
- Phonics & word recognition
- Fluency

See Appendix A for information on teaching foundational skills to English learners of various profiles based on age, native language, native language writing system, schooling experience, and literacy experience and proficiency. Some considerations are:

- Native language and literacy (e.g., phoneme awareness or print concept skills in native language) should be assessed for potential transferance to English language and literacy.
- Similarities between native language and English should be highlighted (e.g., phonemes or letters that are the same in both languages).
- Differences between native language and English should be highlighted (e.g., some phonemes in English may not exist in the student’s native language; native language syntax may be different from English syntax).
