The District is taking proactive steps to ensure that students, staff, and families are prepared for this year's anticipated rainfall levels. Informational resources are being created to address El Niño, and reinforce the emergency activities and supplies necessary to ensure that all schools are prepared for weather hazards. Please visit <http://achieve.lausd.net/elniño> for documents and materials as well as useful and informational links.

El Niño is expected to heavily impact temperatures and precipitations for the next three months, and Los Angeles is likely to receive heavy rainfalls. General Stores Distribution, in conjunction with Office of Emergency Services, School Operations, has provided a list of items that should be stocked in preparation for the upcoming El Niño season.
