REFLECTIONS

Chapter 33 - CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

Okay, I'll admit that calling today's chapter "CLASSIFIED INFORMATION" could be a tad misleading, but it is technically accurate.

Today's reflection does contain information about our classified employees—specifically, how much I appreciate them.

Classified School Employee Week culminates tomorrow, and I want to take this moment to say, as a simple, plain truth, that we could not have accomplished everything we have during this pandemic without our amazing classified team: our Aides, Analysts, Assistants, and Advocates; our Navigators and Coordinators; our Licensed Vocational Nurses; our Secretaries and Office Technicians; our Cost Recovery team; and our Stock Clerk, Multimedia Designers, and Senior Parent Community Facilitator.

This team is diverse in everyday tasks, yet unified in purpose and mission. Each of us plays a vital role in the success of our division. Thank you, classified team. Thank you, everyone. Thank you, thank you, thank you.

Below are a couple of images we prepared as a small way of saying "thanks." The first contains the SHHS leadership team. (Click on the images to enlarge).

Sincerely,

Pia
